

Time	Title	Speaker
08:30-09:00	Registration for the Seminar
	OPENING OF THE SEMINAR
09:00-09:10	Welcome	Mr Vilni Verner Holst Bloch Chair of Steering Committee, Prematurforeningen, KONGSVINGER
09:10-09:40	Standard of Care	President Silke Mader, EFCNI, European Foundation for Care of Newborn Infants GERMANY
09:40-10:00	Maternal units and access to services in Norway	MSc. Emil Elias Traaholt Vågnes Division for Health Statistics, Statistics Norway OSLO
10:00-10:20	Care Procedures – Welcoming Changes. From task-oriented nursing and prescheduled meals to individualized and family centered care	Astrid Nordal Bjørneseth, NICU nurse, NIDCAP pro Unni Tomren, Pediatric nurse, NIDCAP Trainer. Aalesund hospital ÅLESUND
10:20-10:40	Data collection and documentation	Ass. Professor. Arild Rønnestad Norwegian Newborn Medical Quality Register, OSLO
10:40-10:50	Coffee break
10:50-11:10	Educating neonatal nurses for the future; academic and clinical proficiency	Assistant Professor Solfrid Steinnes and Associate Professor Nina M. Kynø Lovisenberg Diaconal University College (LDUC), OSLO
11:10-11:30	Ethical decisions	Dr. Med. Inge Jøran Hagen, Head of Child and adolescence dep., Stavanger University hospital STAVANGER
11:30-11:50	The advantage of quality registry in eye care	Dordi Austeng or Tora Sund Morken NOKROP NTNU TRONDHEIM
11:50-12:00	Music therapy – a short introduction	MSc. Catharina Janner Music therapy, Akershus University Hospital LØRENSKOG
12:00-12:40	Lunch break Music and mingling
12:40-13:00	Guiding programs for parents of preterms - what may be the core elements?	Postdoc/ associate professor, Inger Pauline Landsem University Hospital of North Norway, Child- & Adolescent Department & UIT the Arctic University of Norway, Health research Faculty, Institute of Health and Caring Sciences TROMSØ
13:00-13:20	Long-term consequences of prematurity	Associate professor Kari Anne I. Evensen Dep. of Clinical and Molecular Medicine and Dep. of Public Health and Nursing, NTNU TRONDHEIM
13:20-13:40	The Norwegian Physiotherapy Study for Preterm Infants	Prof. Gunn Kristin Øberg, Physiotherapy, University of Tromsø (UiT) the Arctic University of Norway TROMSØ
13:40-14:00	Infant and family centered care - How to ensure competence in developmental supportive care	PhD Kari Slinning Head of Dep. for infant mental health, Reg. center for child and adolescent mental health (Eastern and southern Norway RBUP)
14:00-14:10	Coffee break
14:10-14:30	How does Single Family Room NICU design impact on preterm infants and their parents?	Research fellow Bente Silnes Tandberg Child and adolescence dep., Drammen Hospital/University of Bergen DRAMMEN/BERGEN
14:30-14:50	Medical care and clinical practice	Dr. Med. Ola Didrik Saugstad, University of Oslo, Norway, OSLO
14:50-15:10	How NICU design can facilitate family centered care	Dr. Med. Atle Moen, Oslo University Hospital, OSLO/DRAMMEN
15:10-15:30	Open discussion on follow-ups	All